

AT LAST...A Cure for Broken Health and Wellness Programs

"Wellco does much more than provide corporate health and wellness programs. Wellco fixes health and wellness programs. As a result, we have decreased our medical costs by more than 15%. Wellco's systems and guidance are the best and most effective in the industry by far."

Carol Gatewood, President, AJ Danboise

3 Key Questions to Determine Your Needs

★ Q1 - Do you have employees that aren't as healthy as they think they are?

- 90%+ have at least 1 avoidable risk affecting your medical costs.
- 25%+ are so unhealthy they should visit their doctor soon due to dangerous and costly medical conditions.

★ Q2 - Would you like to have a better handle on your health care costs?

- 95% of your health care dollars go towards treatment (sick care) rather than prevention.
- 70% of your medical costs are preventable.

★ Q3 - Are you paying for benefits that aren't being effectively utilized?

- Employees now need to choose between paying the rent and going to the doctor.
- Your employee's use of preventive care has significantly decreased.
- Lack of participation is a warning sign that your program isn't working. Wellco's recent programs have achieved 96-100% participation.

★ If you answered "yes" to even 1 of these questions then you need wellness ROI systems.
